

Appendix A

Aircraft Recovery After Action Survey

A-1, The aerial recovery after action survey should contain the following information:

- Recovery unit, phone number, and e-mail address.
- Date.
- Type of aircraft recovered.
- Type of recovery equipment used.
- Condition of recovered aircraft.
- Conditions at recovery site (if combat conditions, so state).
- Recovery team composition (by number and military occupational specialty (MOS)).
- Method of recovery (bellyband or rotor head).
- Narrative of recovery (time required, failures, and shortcomings noted in equipment, remarks, recommendations).

A-2. Send the survey to—

COMMANDER
US Army Aviation Center
ATTN: ATZQ-TDS-DD
Fort Rucker, AL 36362-5000

E-Mail: ATZQ-TDS@Rucker.Army.Mil